Maria Princess of Sachsen-Altenburg guest at English Breakfast

März 8th, 2012

My latest guest Maria Princess of Sachsen-Altenburg met with me in Studio 1 at radiofips. Originally from the Ukraine and now based in Stuttgart, she founded a charity that reaches out to sick and disadvantaged children through “make wishes come true” and creativity projects. Maria also told me about her recently published book “Der feine Unterschied: Erfolg durch sicheres Benehmen in allen Lebenslagen”, a light hearted book filled with personal stories, on etiquette. The topic is nothing new for Maria, who has been offering seminars and workshops on etiquette for executives for years.
